Aman at Sea

Amangati · 47 suites, 94 guests, setting sail 2027

Aman has spent nearly four decades building the quietest kind of luxury on land. Amangati carries it to the water: a 592 foot yacht holding just 94 guests across 47 suites, with 207 crew. This is the complete guide to the yacht, the suites, the dining, the spa and the waters she sails.

A Sanctuary Beyond Borders

Since 1988, Aman has quietly redefined what it means to travel. From ancient valleys to storied cities, Aman's sanctuaries are envisioned as places of peace and privacy. Now, Aman turns its pathfinder spirit to the sea, where the horizon beckons with the promise of grand explorations, rare discoveries and transformational experiences.

Mediterranean-inspired dining is infused with the essence of each destination. Ocean adventures abound in remote coves and coastlines. Curated experiences that offer deep connection to culture and place await.

A Culinary Expression

Drawing from both land and sea, four signature restaurants take guests on a journey of culinary discovery guided by seasonality. Inspired by a reverence for place, each restaurant aboard Amangati delves into heritage, from Japanese artistry at Akari and Mediterranean traditions at Alira, to the elemental flavours of Aman Grill.

A Journey to Savour

Alira

Infused with the spirit of the ocean, Alira expresses the purity of Mediterranean cuisine. From sun-drenched Greek islands to the lemon groves of Amalfi, the open-air venue finds harmony in fresh, seasonal ingredients and daily dishes inspired by the flavours of each stop on the journey.

Akari

Akari pays homage to Japan's washoku tradition, a culinary philosophy focused on seasonality, balance and artful presentation. When the occasion calls for intimacy, a seven-seat omakase counter presents bespoke tasting menus, while the finest rice wines and curated flights are served at the Sake Bar.

Hiori

Named after the Japanese term for a flickering flame, Hiori celebrates the art of teppanyaki. Behind the ten-seat counter, master craftsmen create dishes with precision and expertise. From hand-rolled sushi to wagyu on the grill, each course unfolds with practised theatre and ceremony.

Aman Grill

An homage to the elemental art of the grill, Aman Grill serves prime meats, fish and seasonal vegetables in quiet precision, together with sommelier-led wine pairings. An arc of intimate nooks and atmospheric seating, the space moves seamlessly from low-lit interiors to an al fresco terrace.

Private Dining Room

The most discrete dining experience aboard Amangati, designed for special occasions and private dinners. Framed by ocean views on one side and a walk-in wine cellar on the other, this exclusive space can also be used for guided wine tastings and intimate celebrations.

Throughout the day, a Mediterranean-inspired menu offers fresh salads, mezze and other light fare. Afternoon tea unfolds as a timeless, private ritual and when the light begins to fade, fragrant cocktails and chilled Champagne are poured below the glow of the setting sun.

At One with Sea and Sky
